

Salina LIBRARY

Prepare for LIFE

Freegal Music:

free streaming and downloadable music

Freegal Music:

- Freegal, which rhymes with “legal,” is a database which provides free and legal music to library patrons.
- Services include both streaming and downloads.

Access:

- Click on Music in the E-RESOURCES drop-down menu at the top of the Salina Library Web site (salinalibrary.org).
- Login using your library card number and PIN.
 - Your PIN can be changed at the circulation desk.
 - To log out, click on My Account in the top right and then Logout.

Quotas:

- The streaming music service has a maximum of 3 hours per day.
- Music downloads are limited to 5 songs per week.
 - Music downloads do not contain DRM (digital rights management).
 - Downloaded music may be kept forever.
 - Songs and videos are downloaded as common file types (MP3 and MP4).
- Quotas are listed in the top right of the screen.
 - Streaming time remaining is listed.
 - Music downloads used are listed.
 - Note: downloading a music video counts as 2 downloads.
- Quotas are reset on Mondays.

Finding Music:

- Search by artist, album, or song.
- Browse most popular, new releases, genres, and Freegal playlists.

Listening to Music:

- First, find a song.
- Then, click on the play button to stream it (i.e., listen to it).
- Finally, download the song to keep a copy on your computer or device or add it to a playlist to listen to it again later.

Tips:

- Apps are available for mobile devices.
- Do not forget to log out when finished.
- Be aware of download and streaming quotas.
- Do not be afraid to ask for help.
